WELCOME

IF YOU'RE DELVING INTO THIS 2018 "Best of the USA" supplement, then hopefully you're a little curious about venturing across the proverbial pond – or the border, for our friends in Canada and Mexico. It's easy to imagine that the vast majority of the global population has, at some point, mused about touring the land of the free and the home of the brave, with its towering city blocks; vast open spaces; lush forests; blistering deserts; and endless cosy suburbs. The US is a superpower in more ways than one, and it has an embarrassment of riches that attracts 81 million tourists each year.

Alternatively, you may have picked up this supplement because you hail from the USofA and you're somewhat curious about what startling inclusions or embarrassing omissions we've made. Of course there are many, but there are only so many properties we can wax lyrical about over 50-ish pages. If America was an apple pie, as Don McLean once sang, we've only taken a few nibbles, but we've really tried to go for the juiciest slices, selecting six key locations out of countless cities, states, counties, parks, etc.

Putting aside politics, exhausting news cycles, lazy stereotypes and tiring clichés, the United States of America truly is a great nation, and it was a joy to re-visit some of our favourite destinations for this particular publication. If you do think we've left anyone out, you could simply let us know. Our email addresses, phone numbers and social media handles are overleaf, and we're always ready to discuss our passion for hospitality and travel – some common ground, we hope.

Stay safe and, if in doubt, book the ticket.

DESTINATIONS OF THE WORLD

An aerial view of New York City at dusk. The Empire State Building is the central focus, illuminated with warm yellow lights. The sky is a mix of deep blue and orange, suggesting sunset. Other skyscrapers are visible in the background, some also lit up. The city's lights create a vibrant, glowing effect against the darkening sky.

NEW YORK CITY

WHAT CAN WE SAY ABOUT NEW YORK CITY THAT YOU DON'T ALREADY KNOW? THE CITY IS A BIGGER STAR THAN ANY CELEBRITY HAS EVER BEEN, SUMMONING UPWARDS OF 60 MILLION TOURISTS YEAR AFTER YEAR, NETTING MORE THAN $60 BILLION IN REVENUE – REALLY ADDING SOME CLOUT TO THE “I ♥ NY” GRAPHIC THAT’S BEEN PRINTED ON COUNTLESS MILLIONS OF STICKERS, MUGS AND T-SHIRTS SINCE IT WAS CONCEIVED IN 1997. MANHATTAN ALONE (JUST ONE OF FIVE NEW YORK CITY BOROUGHS) HAS MORE THAN 90,000 HOTEL ROOMS, WHICH IS ONLY LIKELY TO INCREASE AS THE BIG APPLE’S STAR SOMEHOW CONTINUES TO SOAR. DESPITE BEING A NOTORIOUS CONCRETE JUNGLE (WHERE DREAMS ARE MADE OF), THE CITY IS ASTONISHINGLY VERDANT, IN NO SMALL PART THANKS TO THE 778-ACRE CENTRAL PARK, WHICH HAS ANCHORED THE METROPOLIS SINCE 1857.

AN EXCLUSIVE ADDRESS

THE PIERRE, A TAJ HOTEL is situated beside Central Park, just steps from the luxury boutiques of Fifth & Madison Avenues – a veritable white-gloved oasis for the discerning traveler. Having played host to royalty, heads of state, titans of industry, and Hollywood glitterati, The Pierre is unquestionably one of the jewels in Manhattan’s crown.

In 1930, after five years of planning, Charles Pierre Casalsco’s dream to build the world’s most elegant hotel came true. Backed by Walter P. Chrysler, E.F. Hutton, and a group of influential New Yorkers, The Pierre would open its doors on October 1, 1930, to what would eventually become an intimate respite from bustling New York City, with cosy, elegant rooms & suites with lofty ceilings and peaceful interior views.

Fast-forward to 2005 and the hotel was snapped up to join the prestigious collection of Taj Hotels Resorts Palaces Safaris. Then in 2009, the hotel underwent its largest full-scale renovation since John Paul Getty – now remembered by the Getty Suite. The space once occupied by The Pierre’s Gentleman’s Library in 1930 has become Two E Bar & Lounge, a neo-classical venue offering coveted afternoon tea and live entertainment. In 2016, hailed by The New York Times as one of New York’s most spectacular gathering spaces, The Rotunda also reopened after a full-scale renovation.

In the background, the city skyline is illuminated, featuring the tall, ornate clock tower of the Old State House and several modern skyscrapers with glowing windows. Boston

A LOT CAN BE SAID ABOUT ONE THE OLDEST CITIES IN THE US, WHICH HAS BEEN AT THE FOREFRONT OF CULTURE, SPORTS, ACADEMIA AND THE ARTS SINCE ITS INCEPTION IN THE 17TH CENTURY. FROM BALL GAMES AT FENWAY PARK (HOME OF THE RED SOX) TO M.I.T. AND THE MUSEUM OF FINE ARTS, BOSTON HAS AN INCREDIBLE GAMETE OF ICONIC INSTITUTES AND ATTRACTIONS, WITH AN INCREASINGLY GENTRIFIED CITYSCAPE THAT'S PROVIDING A BACKDROP FOR EVEN MORE FIVE-STAR HOTELS AND LUXURY APARTMENTS. THERE'S A REASON WHY THE "BOSTON STRONG" SLOGAN RANG TRUE AFTER THE FATEFUL MARATHON BOMBING IN 2013 – IT'S BECAUSE THE CITY HAS A FORMIDABLE CHARACTER, SHAPED BY CENTURIES OF INFLUENTIAL HISTORY AND A RESILIENT POPULOUS FORGED BY SOME OF THE USA'S FIRST EUROPEAN IMMIGRANT COMMUNITIES. IT'S FAIR TO SAY THAT THERE'S TRULY SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE.

Putting the East on the coast

With a history every bit as rich as Boston itself, TAJ BOSTON is the most iconic and longstanding hotel in the city. Founded in 1927 by the industrious Wyner family as an original landmark hotel, the hotel has remained in continuous operation to the present day. After more 100 years of delighting patrons worldwide, Taj Hotels Resorts and Palaces arrived in Boston in 2007 – a perfect fit for the space, ambience, and historic old world style. Since then, the hotel has assumed a unique identity all its own, drawing simultaneously from its Boston roots and the hospitality traditions of the Taj brand.

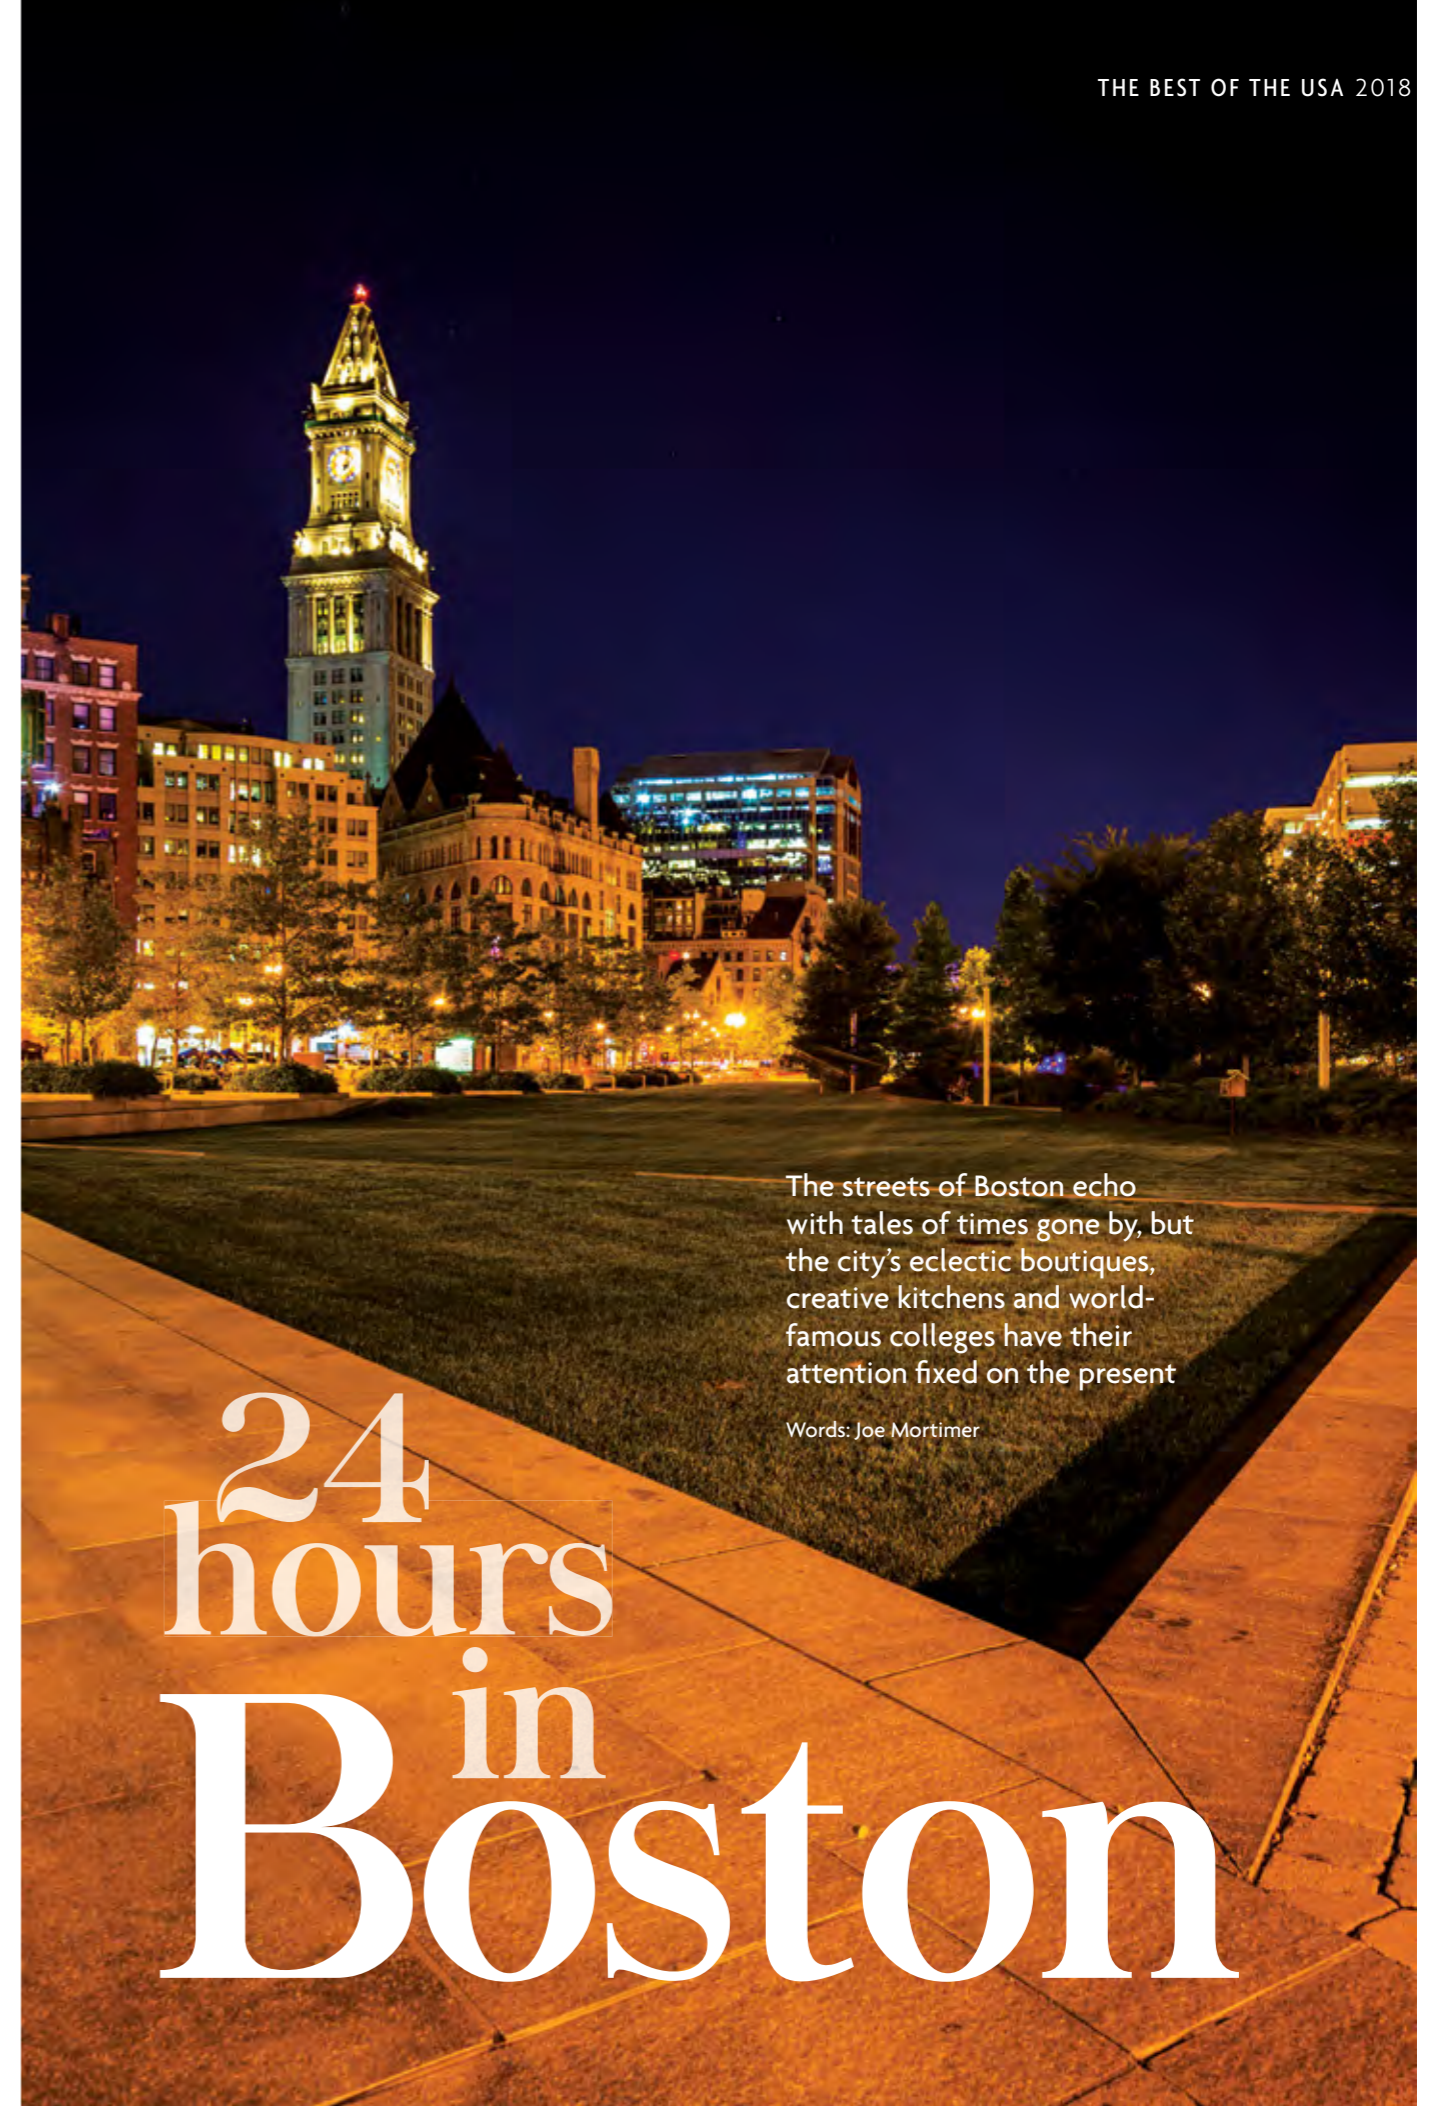

At Taj Boston, patrons enjoy the premier address in the city. Steeped in history and enveloped in brownstone architecture, this progressive hub is home to prestigious Harvard University, the beloved Red Sox baseball team, and a thousand other world-class attractions. Stroll through the Public Gardens in any season and be amazed: experience breathtaking foliage in the fall, ice skating on Frog Pond in the winter, tulips blooming in the spring, and Swan Boat rides throughout the summer.

One can explore fashionable Newbury and Arlington streets, where upscale shops such as Chanel and Burberry are only the beginning of more than a mile of the city's finest shopping and dining. Enjoy the sparkle of Tiffany's in our lobby, with exclusive in-room shopping for guests. Or simply take the elevator to the only true rooftop hotel experience in Boston to cast your eyes across the full majesty of the Charles River, iconic Fenway Park, the gold-domed State House, and the towering Prudential Center.

The Café, a triple-A Four Diamond rated restaurant, is a culinary landmark and local favorite for business meetings and leisure dining. This culinary landmark has played host to Elizabeth Taylor, Winston Churchill, and the Duke and Duchess of Windsor. With windows overlooking vibrant Newbury Street, The Café is the perfect location for an afternoon of people watching.

Boston is a city so steeped in history, it's hard to move more than a few paces without passing a notable monument. To keep with that theme, you'll need a hotel with an equally epic past, so check into The Langham, Boston. This 1922 renaissance-revival-style building in the heart of the city's financial district was once the headquarters of the Federal Reserve Bank, and it continues to exude wealth and grandeur. Under its red awnings on Franklin Street, The Langham maintains a pleasing balance of old and new; bright, contemporary public spaces are adorned with photographs of famous Bostonians, and stylishly complemented by antique items such as an original cash register from its banking days. Freshen up in one of the hotel's 318 rooms and suites before your whirlwind tour of the city.

Have your limo drop you off outside Faneuil Hall, Boston's most important marketplace and meeting house. The red-brick building is one of the key landmarks on the Freedom Trail (+1 617 357 8300; www.thefreedomtrail.org). Before exploring the most intelligent zip code in the nation, tuck into a hearty New England lunch at Harvest (44 Brattle St., Harvard Square; +1 617 868 2255; www.harvestcambridge.com), where some of the city's most celebrated chefs have prepared seasonal, regional fare since it opened in 1975. Executive chef Tyler Kinnett serves hearty dishes made with ingredients from all over Massachusetts: think gin- and juniper-spiced venison sausage, or foraged-mushroom and farro risotto.

the world. Soak in the intellectual energy as you walk through the leafy Harvard Old Yard with a student (from the Harvard Information Center; +1 617 495 1573; www.harvard.edu), and learn about some of the college's secrets, like why the Statue of John Harvard is known as the "Statue of Three Lies", and what became of poor Harry Elkins Widener, after whom Harvard's vast 3.5-million-tome library is named. At the end of the tour, exit through Wigglesworth Gate for your ride back to Boston.

Have your driver drop you off in affluent Beacon Hill, home to some of the oldest and wealthiest families in the city. The neighbourhood's steep cobbled streets are lined with gas lanterns and charming red-brick buildings. Some of the best shopping in Boston is found along Charles Street, where traditional stores with wooden façades and pretty window displays lure in passers-by. Come here for antiques, leather goods, jewellery, vintage clothes and women's fashion labels like Dannijo, Rebecca Minkoff and KM Hudson. At the southern edge of Beacon Hill, the golden-domed Massachusetts State House commands views across the common. No visit is complete without walking through the doors of the nearby Bull & Finch Pub, better known as the place where everybody knows your name: Cheers.

Head over to Newbury Street in the Back Bay neighbourhood, which competes with Beacon Hill for the title of the most exclusive Boston district. The latest addition to chef Barbara Lynch's acclaimed Menton restaurant, the Gold Bar dazzles with a mixture of classic and contemporary cocktails ("elemental" and "evolutionary"), fine wines and rare beers, all served in a suave, gold-plated environment with more than a touch of Mad Men. If you need a pre-dinner snack, try a foie gras frankfurter or truffle-buttered brioche.

Dress for dinner at Bond (250 Franklin St.; +1 617 956 8765; www.bondboston.com), The Langham's signature restaurant, where chef de cuisine Sean Patrick Morrison has created a decadent menu of local fare sourced directly from New England farmers. Under the towering seven-metre vaulted ceiling of the former Federal Reserve Bank lobby, Bond has a sultry, clubby atmosphere that seems more lounge bar than restaurant. Seasonal menus feature dishes such as baked Wellfleet oysters with tasso ham and leek gratin, lobster mac and cheese, or Pineland Farms Black Angus sirloin with bordelaise aged-cheddar potato dauphinois, and marrow-roasted shallots. For the most exclusive Bond experience, book the Dom Pérignon Lounge, perched above the bar with sweeping views of the room.

Massachusetts is an early-to-bed kind of place, and Boston is no exception, especially midweek. But if you're in need of a nightcap, the W Lounge at W Boston (100 Stuart St.; +1 617 261 8700; www.wboston.com) is open until 2am every night of the week; ideal for a post-dinner cocktail to conclude your visit.

STAY WITH FLAVOUR

We all know its culinary namesake but THE NOBU HOTEL AND RESTAURANT was actually designed by award-winning New Yorker David Rockwell. Hand selected by Chef Nobu and Robert DeNiro, it was apt that he was the designer for the world's first Nobu Hotel as he similarly designed the first Nobu Restaurant. The Nobu brand's design DNA is reflected in the overall experience – a fusion of Japanese and Asian traditions with Western accompaniments. The designs embrace comfortable simplicity with natural materials and textures counter-balanced with outsized elements to reveal a touch of Vegas flair. Nobu and DeNiro's vision of the rooms and suites are reflected in their work with David Rockwell, assisting with the handpicking of design elements. Some of the style designs for the guest rooms include custom art by up-and-coming Japanese artists that feature a mix of traditional prints and expressionist designs.

TOURBILLON TIMES

Audemars Piguet's signature "Tapisserie" design has evolved into a sunburst "Evolutive" pattern. This edition has a smoked blue dial, white gold applied hour-markers and Royal Oak hands with luminescent coating. The case is 950 platinum, the bezel set with baguette-cut gradated blue sapphires, and the case back is glareproofed with sapphire crystal. The Royal Oak was first unveiled in 1972 as a steel construction and the high degree of finishing on the steel case and bracelet that really set it apart. Later, the Royal Oak Extra-Thin Tourbillon debuted in 2012 as part of the Royal Oak 40th anniversary celebrations. This piece comes in a limited edition set of just 50 and is an Audemars Piguet boutique exclusive.

A RUBY CROWN

The tiara is enjoying a new lease of life and has become a subversive style statement and a cult accessory, expected to be worn for palace receptions, balls and dazzling garden parties. Another highlight of the Joséphine collection by Chaumet Paris is this Joséphine "Aigrette Impériale" tiara in white gold, set with a pear-shaped Pigeon's Blood ruby from Mozambique or Burma, weighing 2.66 carats. The brilliant-cut diamonds are 13.48 carats and will sparkle at any occasion. Since 1780, the Maison has created more than 2,000 tiaras and constantly reinvents this emblematic set.

SPARKLING DROPS

The Joséphine collection by Chaumet Paris offers timeless elegant exceptional pieces, creative variations on the theme of the Empress' tiaras. Like sparkling drops, the diamonds of Aigrette Impériale form a scintillating spray around the central pear-cut rubies, particularly with these sparkling droplet earrings. Their airy setting frames the central Pigeon blood ruby, regally dressing the ear and adding a touch of majesty. The earrings are in platinum and the rubies are 2 carats each: POR.

FLIGHT OF FANCY

The dream of flight is as old as humanity itself. That dream became a reality in the 18th century when mankind defied gravity and began to conquer the kingdom of the skies. The Métiers d'Art Les Aérostatiers collection by Vacheron Constantin pays tribute to this formative and thrilling chapter in history. On the scale of a watch dial, the master engravers of the Maison have done something remarkable, faithfully reproducing in miniature the historical depictions of five flights undertaken in France between 1783 and 1785. The hand-engraved and micro-sculpted gold hot-air balloons hover delicately against a translucent plique-à-jour enamel background, neatly complementing the 18-karat white gold case: POR.
